REPORTS

BRISTOL DISTRICT

J. F. Reed, Superintendent

The Virginia Conference was dissolved in 1905, it consisted of four districts, which were annexed to the following conferences, the Alexandria to the Baltimore Conference, the Greenbrier to the West Virginia Conference and the Abingdon and Roanoke to the Holston Conference which now constitutes the Bristol District; during the twenty-one years of membership in the Holston Conference, the Bristol District has made the following advancements.

Church Membership.....	5034
Sunday School Scholars.....	6512
Benevolence	$2,012
Ministerial Support.....	$20,809
Church and Parsonage valuations.....	$292,620

These achievements are a revelation of what can be accomplished in this Southern section of our Methodism.

We began the year with all the charges supplied with pastors, but soon after conference O. C. Melton, pastor at Salem, was transferred to the Blue-Ridge Atlantic Conference, and Bishop Thirkield transferred E. N. Tarpley from the Georgia Conference, and appointed him to this charge, Brother Tarpley has had a very successful year, as his report will show. Immediately after conference, C. E. Bevins gave up the Wise Pastorate and the charge was without a pastor at the end of the year.

Barkers Church on the Hilton Charge, was dedicated on the fourth Sunday in October, this church is located at Phillip a small station on the Southern Railway, and cost approximately $2,000. $650 has been raised to finish the Pine View Church on the Radford Charge, this church when finished, will be one of our best rural churches. Cabin Creek Church on the Konnarock Charge, will be finished and dedicated within the next few months.

The first unit of the Roanoke Church is almost completed, the congregation moved into the Community Hall during the month of August and celebrated their achievement with a ten day revival which resulted in thirty additions to the church; this unit will cost something near $35,000. Our outlook was never more encouraging in Roanoke.

The Pennington Gap Church will be completed next year at a cost, counting the equipment, of $30,000, a pipe organ will be installed the first of March, the fourth quarterly conference increased the pastors salary $425 and the World Service $300 for the ensuing conference year, much credit is due pastor Cooper for the splendid work being done by the church in this promising field.

The First Church at Bristol was damaged by fire in the early spring to the amount of $12,000 which hindered the work there for about three months, however under the heroic leadership of Pastor Harris the church has been completely refinished with many added improvements.

Holston Conference, 1926

An eight room parsonage has been built at Christianburg costing $4,500, any Methodist Preacher would enjoy living in this fine home.

$15,000 has been paid on improvements and old indebtedness. World Service collections should show an increase over last year, some of the charges doubled their collections, while some will not report as much raised as was reported last year.

Salaries may not be reported in full, however the totals should compare favorably with last years report.

Group meetings were held over the district in the early spring, Prof. R. A. Kilburn assisted in these meetings in a very helpful way.

The District Conference was held in July at Rose Hill, Va., President, J. L. Robb; Prof. R. A. Kilburn and Dr. J. M. Melear, were present and gave inspiring addresses.

Four new charges have been planned for next year, one in Clinch Valley to be known as the Cleveland Circuit, one in the coal fields around St. Charles to be known as the St. Charles Circuit, one to be known as the Big Stone Gap charge, and one to be known as the Villa Heights charge, located in the City of Roanoke.

The splendid work being done by our young people in the Sunday School and the Epworth League is most encouraging, the reports should show great activities in both of these important departments of church work.

Revivals have been held through-out the district, the pastors helping each other and acting as their own evangelists, have had outstanding victory for the Kingdom of our Lord. Their reports will show about 1100 conversions and 800 additions to the church.

G. L. Shupe, pastor at Riner, as a result of an accident lost his left foot about the middle of August; after spending three weeks in the hospital he was able to finish out his years work.

Mrs. F. B. Slusher, wife of the LaFayette pastor, after a few months illness, passed to her Heavenly Reward June 18. She was a mother to all who knew her.

As to personal labors, I have been busy and happy, for there is joy in service.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

M. P. Murphy, District Superintendent

Several changes of pastors have been made during the year. R. C. Weisner gave up the work at Burks and Fairview about the middle of the year and Joseph M. Mauldin was put in charge and finished up the year's work. Paul Creighton was sent to Mt. Airy Circuit at the beginning of the year but soon gave up the work, and later Hicks Jenkins took the charge and remained until the end of the year. H. L. Webb, who served the East Athens Circuit until the beginning of the fourth quarter, left us and entered the ranks of the Baptist Church, and Beauford Keebler finished up the work of the year. We regret to announce that S. E. Taylor who was appointed to the John A. Patten Community Center found it necessary to withdraw from us. The charge has been without a pastor since last June. S. E. Stringham, pastor at Manker Memorial, was transferred to Auburn, Illinois, by Bishop Thirkield in September and H. C. Coleman of the Central Tennessee conference has taken charge at Manker Memorial. T. H. Roach, pastor at Daisy, and W. C. Daniels, pastor at Soddy, have entered our theological schools at Garrett and Drew.

Death has entered three of the homes of our retired preachers. T. R. Baker, Prof. E. C. Ferguson and Mrs. C. N. Saddler have died. Illness has come to the homes of some of our pastors. W. L. Pickering at St. James and W. R. Curtis of North Athens underwent operations for sinus trouble. There has also been quite a bit of illness among the members of Brother Pickering's family which has caused him and his friends considerable distress. H. G. Williamson was seriously ill with typhoid fever when appointed to Ridgedale Church at the last session of the conference. For several weeks he was unable to move to the charge, but has done splendid work since regaining his health. F. C. Smathers filled the pulpit at Ridgedale until brother Williamson was able to assume the work of the charge. Mrs. J. M. Emert has been ill much of the time during the year and is still under the care of a physician. Aside from these, there seems to have been no serious illness in the families of the pastors.

I wish I had time and space to mention the work of every pastor, for in almost every instance the pastors have done excellent work, but that is not possible here. We have made progress along most lines of church work, and the pastors' reports will show our usual gains. The pastors and quarterly conferences were urged not to let the collections for World Service fall below that of last year, and in most cases a goal of advance was set. Therefore, we fully expect a substantial gain in World Service when the reports are tabulated. We will have a gain in ministerial support of about $2,000. There has been about $42,000 spent on building and improvement of church and parsonage property, and about $8,000 paid on old indebtedness. W. M. Dye, pastor at Etowah, and his loyal people are in the midst of a building program. The new church is now under roof and work is progressing rapidly on the interior. This church will be completed at a cost of $40,000, and owing to the fact that the pastor is supervising the work at a great saving, the building will be well worth $50,000 when completed. This will be one of the best built, most modern churches in the conference. Mention should be made of the fact that, in addition to the sacrificial giving of the congregation to the new church project, the people have increased their contribution to World Service to $100 over that of last year.

Charles A. Biggs and his efficient official board have launched a building program at First Church, Chattanooga, of large proportions. A new parish house adjoining the present church building, with an eighty-foot front on McCallie Avenue, is in the course of construction. The new building will be fitted up for Sunday School purposes and for educational, social and recreational activities of the church, and will be completed at a cost of $150,000. The completed building, including the old church, which will receive necessary touches of improvement, will be worth $250,000, and will be the most outstanding achievement in the way of church building in Holston conference. Manker Memorial Church, which was built last year, will be complete when the new heating plant, which is now being put in, is installed. The church which cost about $80,000 is one of the best equipped, most modern churches in the conference. The church at Tellico Plains has been remodeled at a cost of $1,500. Alton Park has arranged to pay off the debt on church property amounting to $2,100 by the first of November. Highland Park has paid $1,000 on debt and spent another $1,000 on improvements. St. Marks has paid $1,500 on debt and $800 on improvements. Repairs have also been made on church property at other points, as follows: Ridgedale, Red Bank, Englewood, North Athens, Daisy, Copperhill, Pleasant Grove, on the McDonald Circuit and at Chilcuts Chapel on the Chatata Circuit.

About 550 persons have been added to the membership of the churches of the district during the year. Our Sunday School work is gradually increasing in numbers and interest. Teacher training classes, vacation Bible schools, and the graded system are on the increase. The Epworth League work is growing in interest and efficiency. The Epworth Leagues of the district were well represented at the Institute in Sevierville last summer. The Epworth League program at the district conference was well received by a large attendance of young people. Our women's societies of the district are reporting a good year's work. Their offerings will be in advance of that of last year.

Our district conference held at Englewood in July was well attended, the interest ran high, and it was probably the best session we have held during the past four years.

Something must be done to strengthen our country churches, The fact that there is a constant drift of our country people to the cities and towns makes it exceedingly difficult for our country churches to hold their own. The rural sections are being stripped of their most intelligent young people. Our country churches are not making the appeals they should to the communities for lack of local leadership, lack of adequate equipment, and a need, not only of trained preachers, but of resident pastors as well. It would help the situation to consolidate these churches wherever practicable, just as the public schools are being consolidated to good advantage. The building of better roads and the fact that most farmers now have a Ford, make the consolidation of churches in adjoining communities possible. The advantages of this can be readily seen. Better churches could be built, better preachers secured with more adequate support, and a program suited to the needs of the community could be put on. If the church would support a program of this kind it could be carried out to good advantage.

Though possessed with splendid native ability, our people are not being taught to sing the hymns of the church, but are being taught to sing the cheapest sort of jazz under the name of sacred music. Those who publish and sell this music organize the communities, districts and counties and take the Sabbath day for their singing conventions, which are held very frequently through the summer season, with dinner on the grounds, breaking up Sunday Schools and often church services for miles around. To remedy this situation we need singing schools fostered by the church in which the people and preachers attending them may be taught to know and sing the hymns and other spiritual songs of the church; songs which will be conducive to spiritual worship and the building of Christian character; songs which will make a permanent contribution to the religious life of the community.

The University of Chattanooga and the Tennessee Wesleyan College have started well on another year's work. The prospect for a successful year, both at Athens and at Chattanooga, were never brighter. With Presidents Brown and Robb at the head of these institutions and with their splendid faculties to assist them, the success of these schools is assured. In view of the fact that these institutions hold high the standard of Christian education, and contribute so largely to the intellectual development of our people and to the efficiency of our work in this territory, let us support these schools in every way possible, and encourage our young people to take advantage of the opportunities they afford. It ought to be encouraging to the conference to know that the number of ministerial students attending these schools is increasing from year to year. Nine charges in this district have been served this year by student-pastors. These student pastors are fine fellows and have done good work. We always have more applications for student appointments than we have places to give. There are at present several promising young preachers in our Divinity schools who are graduates from the University who will return to this territory in a short time to give to our people the helpful service and intelligent leadership which our schools at Athens and Chattanooga have made possible by their high standard of Christian education.

In closing, permit me to present a brief statement of the work of the district for the past four years. The figures submitted are taken from the Official Journal of this conference. Four years ago the charges of the district paid the pastors, including house rent, $38,400. This year the report will show that they have paid at least $50,000, making a gain of over $11,000. In other words, the district is paying over $11,000 more to the pastors this year than it paid four years ago. For total ministerial support, the district paid four year ago, in round numbers $43,000 and is paying this year $56,000, the charges of the district paid the pastors, including house rent, making a gain of about $13,000. The figures in our minutes will show that our average annual gain for ministerial support has been more than $3,000 during the past four years. While we have had these substantial gains in ministerial support, year by year, yet we have not reached perfection in this respect, for there are ten charges which are paying their pastors less than $600 on salary. Of course, these are for the most part, student appointments and are served by supply or part-time pastors, but it shows that we have room for further advancement in this direction.

The district has paid on World Service during the past four years approximately $60,000, and for total disciplinary benevolences $84,000, making an annual average of about $21,000 for disciplinary benevolences. Our grand total for all benevolent giving during the four-year period, including disciplinary and annual conference benevolences, and other cash items, is approximately $320,000.

We have paid on building and improvement of church and parsonage properly about $113,000 and on old indebtedness the sum of $82,000.

We have a gain in church and parsonage valuation over that of four years ago, amounting to $175,000. We now have a total property valuation of about $700,000. We have a net gain in church membership of 1200.

As to personal labors, I have traveled throughout the district, as the discipline requires; have held about 480 quarterly conferences and several hundred other conferences and committee meetings; have administered the communion regularly in most of the churches of the district; have preached about 608 times; have mailed more than 7,000 letters in the interest of the work.

Whatever hardships I have had in travel and labor have been fully compensated for by the fellowship I have enjoyed with brother ministers, official laymen, and with the people to whom I have preached, and with whom I have worshiped, and whose generous hospitality I have shared.

I wish to make grateful acknowledgment to Mrs. John A. Patten who has generously given a supplement to salaries and to budgets of struggling preachers and churches during these years, enabling us to stimulate churches to give a better support to their pastors. Mrs. Patten has also made generous contributions to all the building projects of the district. I wish also to make acknowledgement to several individuals in First Church, Highland Park Church, and in a few other churches who personally helped on the item of the district superintendent's house rent to which he was subjected for the first two years. To all who have helped in any way I wish to express my heartiest gratitude.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT

J. F. Rowe, Superintendent

When I came on the Harriman District I found the twenty-six charges all supplied with pastors. Brother H. M. Hawk, my predecessor, a very much loved man all over the Harriman District, with the cabinet had placed them well. All the pastors save one have remained at there places until the end of the Conference year. Rev. O. C. Nichols pastor of our LaFollette church, resigned from his charge August the 22nd. Brother Nichols had become very discouraged over his work and over previous financial obligations. His father needed a good man to help out in his business so Brother Nichols decided he could better take care of his indebtedness by working for a while with him. We immediately called a meeting of the LaFollette folks with the intention of appointing a pastor to take care of the work until Conference. But we found that they were unanimous in desiring to be left without a pastor until Conference in order that they might pay off some old indebtedness. And with their promise to supply the pulpit each Sunday and to raise the claims of the church we agreed to this.

No changes have been made in rearranging the pastoral charges except at Dayton and Vine Grove. Spivy Memorial of the Dayton charge has been taken off of Dayton and placed with the Vine Grove charge by request of the Spivy Memorial people.

Early in the spring the officials of our Clinton church became very anxious to unite with the Methodist Episcopal South also of Clinton and sell out their lot to them and on this lot united Methodism erect a commodious church building costing from sixty to seventy thousand dollars. The Methodist Episcopal South folks alone took a subscription in May which amounted to nearly sixty thousand dollars for a new building. We were puzzled as to what were the best steps for our people to take, but as they persisted in uniting with the Methodist Episcopal South feeling as they did that it was the best thing for them to do under the circumstances that they did not feel able to build and maintain a plant that would command the attention of the Methodist Episcopal people already in Clinton and those who might move in later, we finally decided to see if we could effect an exchange with the Methodist Episcopal Church South at some other place. We then called a conference with Dr. E. E. Wiley, Presiding Elder of the Knoxville District Methodist Episcopal South, at Clinton the last of March, and had Rev. L. B. Clarke, pastor of our Harriman church, Rev. Will McCormick, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Harriman and Rev. E. M. Boyd, pastor of our Clinton Church (The pastor of the Clinton church Methodist Episcopal South was out of town) met with us with the hope of effecting an exchange at Harriman. This was tried but we did not succeed. We next took up the matter with Sevierville and we are still working on this scheme.

On the twenty-seventh of September we had Bishop Thirkield meet with the Clinchfield folks and go over the situation with them. After a liberal discussion the Bishop decided that perhaps the best thing to do if we could get an exchange with Sevierville was to let our folks at Clinton unite with the Methodist Episcopal South and be one church. Bishop Thirkield has taken this matter up with Bishop DuBose, resident Bishop of the Southern church in this territory.

The health of the pastors and their families has been splendid generally speaking. But in the late spring Brother Luther Clear, pastor of the Heiskell charge, had to go to Knoxville for treatment for his eyes, and he had to spend twenty days in an Infirmary. Later he had to spend another twenty days in an infirmary. He now feels that his eyes are slowly improving, however, he does not think it best to take work for another year.

One of our retired ministers, Rev. M. H. Monroe, passed to his eternal reward the 19th of June. He leaves behind his companion and four children all of whom are grown.

We have had no outstanding building projects on in the District this year. However, at Crossville the pastor, Rev. J. H. Meyers, and his people have practically completed a new five room parsonage which, with the lot is well worth $2,500, and I understand there is little or no indebtedness on the property. The pastor himself planned and for the most part did the carpenter work on this splendid bungalow.

Our people at Onedia have built to their church enlarging their auditorium and adding to the Sunday School capacity at a total cost of $2,500

Our Oakdale people under the leadership of their pastor, Rev. C. H. Taylor expended more than a thousand dollars on inside improvement of their church building.

Soon after Conference, Sunday School rooms are to be added to the Vine Grove church, on the Vine Grove charge, and to the Graysville church on the Graysville charge.

We have received the following information from the pastors:

Number of days spent in revival.....	891
Number of conversions and reclamations.....	1109
Number of accessions to our church.....	626
Increase in church membership.....	602
Amount paid on building and improvements.....	$8,294
Amount paid on old indebtedness.....	$6,149

For the most part the pastors held their own revivals and they have gotten along exceedingly well.

Proposed river dams have halted two new church building projects that would mean much to the communities where they are to be located. First, at Walnut Grove on the Big Valley charge we were planning to build an eight to ten thousand dollar brick veneer structure. About half of the subscriptions were taken and the plans decided on. They were to begin work on the building not later than the first of September. The proposed dam is to be located a few miles below Walnut Grove, and if built would send back water in the vicinity of our church location. However, if the dam is not built they hope to begin the first of next April. A similar thing happened at Loyston on the Andersonville charge. We had practically located a lot on which to erect a suitable church for that community. Loyston is a country village and has Methodist and Methodist South constituency which, if conserved and organized would become a thriving church. The Southern Methodist have no building there so it is reasonable to suppose that they would join us in the new project. Then too, the Mitchel-Fox church on the Andersonville charge about one mile from Loyston want to sell out where they are and bring their forces and join in with the Loyston undertaking. We had expected to have this plan underway this Conference year, but the proposed dam in the river some distance away has held back the work. Recently we met and talked with the Methodist folks of Loyston and they are very hopeful of beginning the church project in the near future.

We feel sure that the pastors' report will show a substantial increase in World Service givings. But the District is not up to what it can and ought to do. (We think that the future holds much better days for World Service givings on this District.)

The Third Quarter we carried with us a Stereoptican outfit which was made possible for the District through the generosity of Mrs. John A. Patten, and gave the World Service Lecture, "To Serve the Present Age", on all but five charges, and on some of the charges (circuits) as many as three times. It was appreciated at every place and we think it did much good especially by way of education. We also gave the Stewardship Lecture, "Man, God's Partner," on a number of the charges which we think will have good effect. We let some of the pastors have the lantern outfit and they put on the World Service lecture. We are urging all the pastors to put on, as far as possible, the high quality illustrated lectures our church is getting out. All our folks need to be, and I believe want to be educated along these lines.

Our Sunday Schools have done as good work as could be expected under the conditions. Our greatest needs are better trained Leadership and better Sunday School equipment which necessitates more room than the great majority of our churches have at present. We have emphasized the importance of a Teacher Training class in every Sunday School but we have not made much headway as yet. But we definitely know of two such classes having been taught, one in our Jellico church and the other in our Graysville church.

The Epworth Leagues have been doing good work. According to the Quarterly Conference reports the Senior Leagues have more than doubled in the number of chapters and membership. We had practically fifty registered delegates at the Institute at Sevierville. The Junior League has not done so well but it has done splendid work. We have insisted on the proper teaching and training of the young life of the church.

Especial emphasis has been laid on the organization of Brotherhood in every church, we have one outstanding one at Jelico. They have seventy-two members and are carrying forward a fine program in the church. We organized a District Brotherhood Council in August. Along the several lines it is to function, one will be to promote Brotherhoods in the local churches of the District.

Our District Conference met at Sunbright July 5-8. Only six of the pastors were absent, and most of them were kept away by sickness. The pastors and laymen who were on the program did their parts well, so did the women and the Epworth Leaguers. We also had with us Dr. R. A. Kilburn and Dean Wallace E. Miller, from Tennessee Wesleyan College, Dean J. O. Cresswell, from Murphy Collegiate Institute, Rev. C. B. Tarwater, pastor of East Main Avenue church, and Dr. R. M. Millard, pastor of First Church, Knoxville, who added greatly to the program with their inspiring addresses. Baxter Gass also of Knoxville, was with us Epworth League night and helped to make that service the fine success it was.

We have been very fortunate in securing two women workers for the Morgan Springs charge, which is a Home Mission Field on Walden's Ridge. They are Miss Luella Pearce, daughter of a Methodist preacher, and has done Deaconess work eleven years, and Miss Minnie Linendoll. Both have been doing community work in Picket County, Tennessee. They will live at Morgan Springs, which is one of the points on the Morgan Springs charge, and work in that community. Then they will go over the charge as often as they can and do work at the other points. They each have a small income and will serve without any remuneration. They will be a great asset to the people of this mountain charge.

The pastors have been faithful to their tasks, and have assisted the Superintendent in every way they could in the work of the District, and it has been a pleasure to work with them and their splendid people.

I have given my time to the work of the District. I have held all of the one hundred and four Quarterly Conferences myself. (I have also assisted in several revival services.)

I feel that every pastoral charge is an opportunity for doing Christ's service and is capable of being developed into a greater field for Kingdom endeavor.

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

W. L. Oliver, Superintendent

This is my third annual report of the Johnson City District to the Holston Conference now in session at Chattanooga, Tenn. Of the twenty-seven pastors, appointed at the last session of the Conference, twenty-six have stayed by their post and will report their work. Rev. C. J. Bornman, appointed to the Pittman Center charge resigned his work last February. Dr. J. S. Burnett, being in close touch with the School at that place assumed the responsibility of the Circuit, and with the assistance of some local preachers, the work has been well cared for and the report will show a large number of conversions and accessions.

The death angel visited among us this year and took from the home of the Rev. D. L. Howell the wife and mother, which left this man of God and his children sad and lonely. The other pastors and their families, save some minor troubles, have been blessed with health.

In some respects this has been a peculiar year for our work in this District, and we have watched the growth with much interest. The people have complained of hard times, the drought of a year ago left many of the farmers without sufficient grain for their stock through the winter. Business men of the towns have said "We have not seen business so dull for years;" and yet the optimistic pastors have led them to believe that the seemingly impossible can be done, so this has been a year of church building, and the payment of old indebtedness.

Baileyton has had an indebtedness on the parsonage for some years to the amount of about $3,000. This has nearly all been paid this year. The Newmansville church on the Baileyton charge had a debt of $400, this has been paid and the Church was dedicated October 10th. On July 11th, the Normal Heights church, a mission work started by the Johnson City congregation, was dedicated. There was a debt there of $500. Dr. J. M. Melear preached the sermon, and in a very few minutes raised the amount, and this beautiful little chapel was dedicated to the worship of God.

September 19th, Dr. Melear went with me to Clintons Chapel, on the Mountain City Circuit. This is a new church, built of rock. The indebtedness had been provided for, but a free will offering was taken and amounted to nearly $300. Dr. Melear preached from the text "I will build my church" and the church was dedicated. The Rev. D. L. Howell has been the pastor of the Mountain City Circuit for eight years, during his pastorate three churches have been built and a parsonage secured. The Quarterly Conference voted unanimously for his return next year.

Newport church under the efficient leadership of the Rev. J. W. Broyles has paid about $4,000 on indebtedness this year. The young men's class of the Sunday School felt they had no place they could call their own, so, they built a room at the back of the church at a cost of $1,000 and are now happy in their new quarters.

Jenkins Chapel on the Newport Circuit has been torn down and a new church is being erected, which, when completed, will cost about $2,000. Mt. Zion on the Sulphur Springs charge, no longer serving the needs of the community where it was, was torn down and the material moved to Gray's Station, where a church is now being constructed that will cost about $1,500 when completed.

Elizabethton is rapidly growing into a thriving little city. A year ago our people bought three lots for $1,500. Two of these have been sold for $1,450 and we kept the other. On this lot has been built an eight room, brick veneer bungalow at a cost of $7,000. What a beautiful home it is, so neat, so comfortable, so commodious. The pastor, Rev. Cicero Dobbs, was not afraid to lay aside his coat and become a laborer to make this dream a reality.

Mt. Pleasant class, Mosheim Circuit, has taken down their building and in its place are erecting a brick church, when completed, will cost about $15,000.

Parrottsville is happy over the fact that they are in the midst of a building project, and have begun a church that will cost about $10,000.

The Kingsport church is completed and what a beautiful building it is. Last Sunday to a crowded house Bishop Thirkield brought a message that touched the hearts, and lifted the people to a higher plain in Christian living. The debt on the church had been provided for, $4,500 was asked for some outstanding needs. In a very few minutes most of it was raised, and the building dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, by Bishop Thirkield assisted by Dr. Melear, the District Superintendent, the pastor, the Rev. S. G. Ketron and others. Too much cannot be said of this heroic people who gave sacrificially of their means to make this building possible, and of the pastor who for seven years has labored among them. When money was available he hired men, always supervising them, when it was not available he did the work. Certainly it can be said of this man "He built this Church."

Not only has this been a year of church building and the payment of old indebtedness, but the revival fires have burned upon the altars. The pastors reports will show that there have been about 1,200 conversions and renewals, and about 800 accessions to the church. If our people did not believe so strongly in blacksliding, and practice it so regularly, our pastors would have more courage to work; but to hold a revival, see the people wonderfully stirred, and at the next appointment, a month hence, find only the same faithful few is the thing that takes the heart out of the preacher. Most of the Sunday Schools have kept going through the year. A number of new Epworth League chapters have been organized, and the spiritual condition of the District is very good.

In the first quartely conferences it was a difficult thing to get the people to realize that they could pay a larger salary, so they are about the same as last year. Some of the pastors will report salaries paid in full, others will show a deficit. Most of the pastors will report a small gain in the benevolences over last year, so that the District will have a gain in World Service.

As to my own labors I have held all my Quarterly Conferences except three. Have traveled over 9,000 miles, have sent from my desk 867 pieces of mail, have preached 172 times.

With all the success we have had I have rejoiced with the pastors and people; with all the reverses and failures I have tried to keep sweet. God has been wonderfully good in that He has blessed me and my family with health, and we have been happy in His service. To Him be all the praise for His wonderful work to the children of men.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

W. C. Martin, Superintendent

The year has been an eventful one in the Knoxville District. We have attempted a very strenuous program aside from the task of getting acquainted with the people and studying the field. Some results have been achieved which more than justify the expenditure of strength and extra time. Each quarter has been crowded with travel and public ministry, but the last three months of the year have been unusually taxing. Our records show travel, preaching and business sessions practically every day. Frequently we have had three sermons, two sacramental services and two business sessions as the record for one day (together with the travel between services.) We have not shirked any duty but have tried to set an example in industry and faithfulness. To the credit of our pastors and people it may be said that we have received most loyal support and co-operation.

Our joys have been mixed with sorrows. Death and tragedy have visited our District more frequently than is usual. In the beginning of the year Dr. George C. Williams collapsed after a sermon in his pulpit at Trinity church, and died four days later. He was a good man, a true shepherd of the flock, and his passing was a serious loss. In remarkably short time Bishop Thirkield appointed Rev. Jesse P. Bogue to the pastorate of Trinity and he was in his pulpit two weeks after the death of Dr. Williams.

Dr. J. J. Robinette, one of the strong preachers of the conference, died quite suddenly. His going marks the passing of a great soul. Although retired he would not be inactive. He fell while making plans for future work. Surely he has a great task in the Kingdom of God.

Dr. E. A. Bishop, who for so many years rendered signal service as President of Murphy Collegiate Institute, fell at his post of duty. He had recovered from a serious illness sufficiently to go north in search of funds for the institution so near his heart. He did not return in the flesh but his spirit lives on and his work abides.

Rev. J. W. McGhee, one of our honored retired ministers, also died during the year. His was a long and fruitful life. He will be greatly missed.

Mrs. E. H. Ogle, wife of our pastor at Townsend, was called away from her family during this year. Her husband and a small son survive. Our sympathy goes out to them in their sorrow.

Recently Brothers J. A. Mitchell and E. H. Ogle suffered a serious accident while riding in a motor car near Townsend. Both are in the Fort Saunders Hospital at this time, recovering from bruises and broken bones. We are exceedingly thankful that they are alive. They send love and good wishes to every member of the conference.

There has been an increase of about $4,000 in pastors salaries and other ministerial support. The ratio of payment is perhaps a bit better than usual. We have not been able to reach our goal of every pastor paid in full but we are making progress.

The increase in membership will be very gratifying. There have been some losses due to revision of inflated records but allowing for these losses our net increase will be more than the total net increase for the conference last year.

The various organizations of the Church have had a very successful year. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, the Ladies' Aid Societies, the Epworth, Intermediate and Junior Leagues, together with the Laymen's Association and the Methodist Brotherhood have worked out fine programs. Their reports will be exceedingly interesting. More funds have been raised by the Ladies of the District than in any previous year.

World Service collections will be increased, judging from reports now in hand. Total Disciplinary Benevolences should be considerably above last years figures. Our increase in World Service, up to September 30th, was over 30 per cent. We shall probably not show that percentage for the year but we are expecting a gain. Already the charges are organizing for much larger giving next year.

One of the achievements of the year is the purchase of a District parsonage which would be a credit to any District. The cost was $10,000. Great credit must go to the Committee of laymen and ministers who worked for ten months in an effort to do this very necessary thing.

First Church has experienced a year of splendid development. There has been a net increase in membership of 133, the World Service budget has been increased, two workers have been added to the staff, Rev. Perry James, Director of Religious education, and Miss Maxine Curtis, who has charge of the office and other important matters. For some time the services of the church have been broadcast over the radio, which gives this church the distinction of pioneering in this field. The new budget, now very nearly under-written, will be about double the present budget.

Trinity has improved the Sunday School quarters, increased the budget, added more than 100 to the membership, employed a full time Secretary, Miss Carey, and a Director of Religious Education, Miss Catton, and is now conducting the first Week Day School of Religion in the Conference.

Second Church is closing one of the finest years in its history. Every dollar of debt has been paid, extensive improvements have been made, a Community Worker has been employed and the increase in membership has been most gratifying. A greater plant and program for this great church is in prospect.

East Main Avenue has had a great growth in every way. Over 100 have been added to the church, the general program has been improved, financial matters have been well managed and the finest spirit has been manifest. A new day is before this loyal group.

Vestal church has been completed and this fine people are rejoicing over a really notable achievement. Once more Dr. G. T. Francisco has earned the title of Church Builder.

Oakwood church is rapidly nearing completion. Here is a beautiful church which will adequately meet the needs of this growing community. The pastor and people are to be commended for their fine work.

Sevierville is erecting a parsonage of which any church might be proud. Such property in Knoxville would be worth $10,000. The cost, exclusive of lot, is $7,500.

Park City has had an encouraging increase in membership, increased the budget of the church and in every way experienced a fine year. Dr. Pitts has a splendid report.

Shiloh on Sevierville Circuit has purchased eight acres of land for the new Asbury Memorial church. The property is all paid for. The pastor, Rev. C. L. Kirby, has worked faithfully on this enterprise.

Murphy Collegiate Institute suffered great loss in the death of Dr. Bishop. Rev. Harry L. Upperman came to the leadership of the school but was compelled to resign because of a break in health. Mr. Davee is now the president and is beginning his work very auspiciously. We have a fine plant and campus, a capable faculty, and an open field. Surely with the cooperation of our people we shall have a great future.

The laymen have been very active in the local churches and in the District. Mr. A. M. Hill, Conference President, Mr. C. G. Baker, District Vice-President and others have rendered valuable service. Special emphasis has been placed upon Brotherhood work and several organizations have been affected.

It will not be possible to mention every pastoral charge but good reports could be made for most of them. The preachers all know that I love them, rejoice in their success and share their labors and troubles. We have a fine group of pastors willing to work out a constructive program for this new day and challenging opportunity.

Standing Committees and Boards

SOCIAL SERVICE

We have included Temperance and Prohibition, State of the Church and Country, Deaconess Work, and Sabbath Observance.

In presenting our report on this quartette, we will call your attention,

FIRST: To Temperance and Prohibition, the most significant and outstanding issue of our nation today. Watched from afar by all nations as is no other issue. Agitated by the foes of the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act, as never before. At this time, there are 32 anti-prohibition organizations endowed with over two billion dollars, working in concerted effort to overthrow what has been done in the interests of Temperance, concentrating in eighteen states, to repeal or nullify the present prohibition laws. For instance in Missouri, they are attempting to pass a referendum, taking away the authority to arrest or try all prohibition cases from every Constable, Sheriff, and Deputy Sheriff, Magistrate, County and District Judge, and Prosecuting Attorneys, so that no liquor violations would come under their jurisdiction; relieving 6,250 state officers from all responsibility, who were elected and are paid for such execution, leaving all liquor violations to be dealt with, by 45 Federal officers, who have under their supervision all Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Arkansas, Missouri and Southern Illinois. Can you not see what the results would be? Should it carry, the state would be the rendezvous of all the thugs, robbers and murderers of the rest of the U. S. This is a sample of anti-prohibitionists. The limited space will not permit more on this part of our report.

SECOND: State of the Church and the Country.

The investigations of students of social problems in America are revealing conditions which cause us to look with great concern upon the present and future welfare of our country. It has become clear to us that society today is a composite of both pagan and Christian ideals, sanctions and customs. It is the high purpose of the Church to help to eliminate from our national social structure all destructive forces, and to conserve those influences which make for stability and permanency in our institutions of government. That disintegrating tendencies are strongly active in our national life is obvious. There is taking place in the United States today "the most vast and dangerous concentration of wealth in the hands of the few that history has ever recorded". Industrial discontent is rampant with over 3000 strikes a year. The political corruptions of the past year have been appalling. Lawlessness boldly stalks abroad unchecked. America leads the world in the number of lynchings. Population shifts are distinctly toward towns and cities, thus impoverishing rural life, and bringing to the congested centers large numbers of people who are morally unprepared to cope with the conditions of their new environment. Racial prejudice is kindling in the hearts of men, women and children a bitter hatred for all peoples of color.

With these and other facts just as alarming staring us in the face, it is certain that the Church needs "fresh visions of God". The disciples of Jesus are still the salt of the earth. Religion is the soul of civilization. We need to preach Jesus as the Way, the Truth and the Life for social groups as well as individuals. It is a Methodist tradition that the validity of our faith is to be tested not so much by orthodoxy of creed as by the quality of our experience and conduct before the world. Therefore, let us give little heed to theological disturbances so common today; but let us with the courage of the prophets direct our preaching toward a more diligent application of the principles of Jesus to the threatening problems of our country.

THIRD: Deaconess Work. This being an important department of our work, it should be given due recognition. This Board comes not to be ministered unto; but like our Lord, to minister. Hence, we hereby, most gratefully acknowledge the great work achieved under the work of this Board, and heartily commend its work to the Church, and pledge our cooperation.

FOURTH: Sabbath Observance. We deplore the increasing desecration of the Holy Sabbath; The concerted effort put forth by disloyal unamericans of the United States to break down its laws, and to bring them into disrepute. We, therefore, respectfully urge all Christians and civic institutions to cooperate in the maintenance of this Holy Day set apart by our God, and hallowed for the worship of Almighty God.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM M. DYE,
H. G. WILLIAMSON,
W. A. GRAYBEAL,
I. B. LEONARD,
L. B. CLARK.

WORLD SERVICE

We, your committee on World Service, submit the following as our report:

We note with interest and gratitude, that the Bible continues to be the most popular book in print today. This is not only true in America but it is true in many heathen lands.

In the words of Bishop Badley, "It is probably not too strong to say that the Bible, particularly the New Testament, is the best known book in India to-day." What Bishop Badley says of India may be said of many other mission fields.

The American Bible Society is the agency through which the Methodist Episcopal Church tells the story of Jesus and His love for men, by the circulation of the Bible; we therefore urge the pastors to inform their people of the great work this Society is doing and solicit their support.

The cause that is dear to every preacher's heart is the one that provides for him when he finds it necessary to retire from active service. We, who are now active, should see that the retired brethren are well provided for.

It is with sadness that we note our fund for the retired minister was less this year than it was the year before. This ought not to be so, as these men, who in the past, have given their best years to the Church, ought to be kept in comfort by the Church in the evening of their days, so there may be no cloud to dim, by worry for things material, their golden sunset.

Let every pastor see that every member and friend of the church has an opportunity to contribute to the support of the Conference Claimants.

When we come to consider the needs and opportunities facing us as a Church of Jesus Christ from both the Foreign and home mission fields, we are made to cry out in the words of one of our leaders: "To Your Knees, Oh, Methodists". Yet is this enough? Shall we not rather say, To your knees for needed Grace, and from your knees arise in the strength and spirit of your Christ and meet these needs and opportunities as true disciples of Him who said: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature".

From the reports of the various charges the indication is that there is an advance this year in our missionary giving. Good as this may seem, shall we not double it and then double it again. If the Methodist of the Holston Conference would give each week to the World Service Program the price of a two cent postage stamp, it would amount to $48,301.76; a sum almost double what we gave to this cause in 1925. If each member in the bounds of the Holston Conference would give as much as 5 cents per week to World Service our total gift for this cause alone would then be $120,754.40 per year. Will any member say this is too much?

In the words of Isaiah: "Arise, be enlightened, for thy light is come".

May we suggest one or two things to the members of this Conference?

First—These needs can not be met, this goal can not be attained, without much prayer and self denial (with the emphasis on much). Let each Superintendent and Pastor as he goes back to his charge, spend much time in prayer. Let him ask God to open his eyes and give him a vision of the needs of the world, let him ask God to lay on him the burden of this need until he feels the need to be a personal one. Let him acquaint himself as to the condition the church is now facing in both the home and foreign fields.

Second—Each Superintendent and pastor should use every means possible and at his disposal to inform his people of this world need. The statement has been made over and over again, by our Bishops abroad; "That if the real conditions were known by the Church the needs would be amply met."

Let every Sunday School have a missionary Superintendent and at least one Sunday in each month be given to missionary instruction. Let missionary study classes be organized in every Epworth League chapter. The membership of the church might be organized into classes and "The World Call" be used as a text book.

Brethren, it is time we should rise in the strength and Spirit of Him, who has all power in Heaven and on Earth, and say, so far as the Holston Conference is concerned and can prevent it, there shall be no more cutting in our missionary appropriation, but that from year to year this offering shall increase until the kingdom of earth shall become the kingdom of our Lord and His Christ.

This illustration by Bishop Brown:

"The most commanding and most dreaded personality in Europe today is Mussolini. He threatens democracy everywhere. Have you thought that his present position and power is made possible by the absolute loyalty of the Italian youth? Here is a list of test questions addressed to his youthful Italian army:

"My fellows, I ask you, if the sacrifices of to-morrow were greater than those of yesterday, would you endure them? (loud cries of yes)

"If I ask you to-morrow to give to me the supreme proof of discipline, would you give it to me? (Renewed cries of assent.)

"If, to-morrow I gave the alarm, the alarm of great test of endurance of the type that decides the destiny of nations, would you answer to that call? (Cries of yes, we swear we would).

"Are your souls ready to endure trial that discipline exacts, even the most ignoble and humiliating kind, that of the daily round and common task? (Loud cries of assent).

Then cries Mussolini, "You are henceforth blended in one spirit, one heart, and one conscience."

Without irreverence may we not think of Jesus Christ as asking these same questions of His church with reference to His plan and program for the world? If the soldiers of Mussolini give that kind of loyalty to one whose ambitions are personal and whose aims are selfish, tell me, O Church of Christ, what kind of loyalty ought we to give to one who put the cross at the center of the world and died on it, that He might from it bring God and love and peace and brotherhood to men everywhere? What is your answer, O Church of God? "Here am I, send me."

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in its Eighty-third session, at Chattanooga, Tennessee, desires to express its deep and sincere appreciation of the very valuable services of those of the Highland Park Methodist Episcopal Church of Chattanooga, to the pastor, the Rev. R. L. Stapleton and all who in any way made a contribution toward the welfare and comfort of the members and friends of the conference.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation of the wise administration and most helpful devotional addresses of our resident Bishop Wilbur Patterson Thirkield.

We desire to express gratitude to the speakers who have appeared on the program, among whom are Dr. J. M. M. Gray, the Rev. Charles E. Parker, Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Dr. William S. Bovard, Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, and Bishop W. O. Shepherd.

We most heartily commend the Methodist Book Concern for placing such a fine display of new books at our disposal for review and examination. Moreover, we are indebted to the Rev. John H. Race for the fine work he is doing as Senior Publishing Agent and for calling our attention to the latest publications in his most helpful and inspiring addresses.

We recognize the fine work done by all the conference officers in the discharge of their duties and desire to thank them for their efficient services.

We are deeply grateful to the public press for their generous space in giving the conference session such fine publicity.

We wish to acknowledge the many courtesies extended to the Holston Conference by Mrs. John A. Patten and sincerely thank her for the delightful reception on Saturday evening, October 23.

We wish to thank the management of the Reed House for the many courtesies extended to our resident Bishop, Wilbur Patterson Thirkield, in providing his entertainments during the session of the Holston Conference.

Whereas, the conference year, 1927-1928, will be the last year of effective service from our beloved Bishop Wilbur Patterson Thirkield, we respectfully request the Board of Bishops to honor the Holston Conference by assigning him to preside over this conference in 1927.

We deeply and most humbly thank our Heavenly Father for His loving care and guiding spirit in all the affairs of the conference, and to Him we pledge ourselves anew to the great work whereunto He hath called us.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD M. MILLARD, Chm.
GO. J. CRESWELL,

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

The history of Methodism is a record of evangelism. She was born in a revival of Pentecostal power. Her travail of soul was an agony of intercessory prayer. Her growth came as a result of public private and personal evangelism. Her great leaders knew God. Under their ministry deep conviction for sin was present in every place. Men sought after God and were found of Him.

The gospel has not changed. Jesus Christ is the same loving and compassionate Saviour. The Holy Spirit has the same power to cleanse. The people of this generation are as needy as were any of the past. Our young people live in an atmosphere of worldliness. They need to know Jesus Christ and to feel his presence as a daily helper in temptation.

Therefore, be it Resolved:

1. That we reaffirm our confidence in the old time revival, which with a prayerful church and a spirit filled ministry may still experience a Pentecost.

2. That we regard the Sunday School as a mighty opportunity to marshall and train the hosts of young people of our church for effective Kingdom service for the entire year.

3. That the Epworth League with its "WIN MY CHUM SEASON" its study courses, and its summer institutes provides a means of evangelism unknown to our fathers, and enables us to enlist for life service for whole or part time, the most capable and efficient young people of our church, thus enabling us to provide leadership for a future militant ministry.

4. In view of these things we urge upon our pastors and lay leaders the importance of these arms of power viz:—The Sunday School and the Epworth League as powerful agencies for an every day evangelism and the old time revival as a special season of Grace during which sinners may be won by the intensive effort of the church and saints may be led to a fuller consecration and a more effective service.

W. K. HARRIS, Chm.

Treasurer's Cash Report

NOTE—Thirty dollar check turned in from St. Mark's Church by Rev. W. C. Martin, then Pastor, for Preachers' Aid a year ago, which brother M. C. Bruner feared was lost, WAS NOT LOST—it went through proper official channels with eight other dollars for same purpose and reached G. F. Lockmiller, Treas., Preachers' Aid Society, Athens, Tenn., November 12, 1925, according to his records, and as per my printed cash report in Minutes of 1925, page 206 and item 11 in "Paid Out" column.

Most of interest, $14.91, earned came from money turned in from First Church, Chattanooga, too late for distribution to Conference Claimants a year ago, and on request of Dr. O. R. Tarwater, and consent of Dr. C. A. Briggs, I have paid on Minutes Fund. Also $30.00 as ordered by Conference in case balance would justify.

Through an error in first audit and settlement at Conference I paid W. K. Harris, for Conference Claimants, $6.07 too much—that check should have been $15,008.42. It may be deducted next Conference as we have a balance.

My final audit of every item in every charge, every district and the Conference as a whole, with cash receipts and disbursements as per credits given charges and Bank deposits verified by Mr. George Owen, Official Expert Auditor City National Bank, Knoxville, Tennessee.

WILLIAM F. PITTS, Treasurer,
Holston Conference,
Knoxville, Tennessee.

Report of Treasurer, Preachers' Aid Society

I herewith submit my report as Treasurer of the Preachers' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, Holston Conference.

I am sending the treasurer of the Holston Conference to-day a check for $2794.42, interest received on loans.

Our total resources to date are $46,710.62. These loans are all well placed, being on improved property within 50 per cent of the actual value, insurance is also carried as further protection. I might state further that no loan is delinquent and all interest is paid.

Respectfully submitted,

G. F. LOCKMILLER, Treasurer.

MEMOIRS

E. A. BISHOP

President E. A. Bishop of Murphy Collegiate Institute, Sevierville, Tenn., died in the Methodist Episcopal Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., December 20, at the age of seventy-two. He had come North on one of his customary "vacation" trips in behalf of the school which was his joy and pride when a sudden and fatal illness developed.

Dr. Bishop was born at Wrightstown, N. J., on a farm now included in "Camp Dix." From a local academy he went to Wesleyan University, graduating in 1878. He taught at Borden-town (N. J.) Female Academy, Durham (N. J.) Academy, was principal of Montpelier (Vt.) Seminary and Chamberlain Institute, at Randolph, N. Y. (1893-1902). In 1900 he joined Erie Conference, in 1902 was pastor at McKean, Pa., and the next year superintendent of Ferris Industrial School, Wilmington, Del. In 1904 he was transferred to Vermont Conference, where he again served as president of Montpelier Seminary (1904-12). Since 1912 he has been at Sevierville, guiding the development of that school of the East Tennessee mountaineers with wisdom and devotion. The honorary degree of doctor of divinity was conferred upon him by Mount Union College in 1895 and Wesleyan in 1910. He was a trustee of Wesleyan 1910-12. In 1908 he was a delegate to the General Conference. He was president of the Vermont Teachers' Association in 1888.

President Bishop was known and esteemed for his engaging personality, his energy, and his resourcefulness. During his administration, the Institute purchased the Goddard property for a girls' dormitory; and in 1919 acquired sixty--three acres on which seven buildings will be located. Three already completed are a dormitory for boys, a new administration building and a girls' dormitory. The completion of the project will form one of the best equipped Southern schools of the church.

To this constructive program President Bishop devoted his whole energies. His absorption in the future of the school was the dominant force of his later years.

Dr. Bishop married Clara Irene Brown of Pointville, N. J., in 1878, who died in 1908. In 1911 he married Carrie A. Miller of Hartford, Conn., who survives him. The children by the first marriage are: Ethel, Irene, Clara Evelyn, and Harold Elwell.

REV. T. R. BAKER

The Rev. Thomas R. Baker was born in Carroll County, Ga., near Carrollton, July 30, 1866, and died, at his home, in College Park, Ga., March 1926. Age 59 years, 5 months and 10 days. He was twice married. His first wife, Mrs. Mattie Johnson Baker, lived less than two years after they were married. To this union a daughter was born, who lived only a short while. On October 25, 1903, he was married to Miss Bertha Cash, who survives him. To this union 6 children were born, four sons and two daughters. The sons are; Rudolph R., Cardwell C., Henry T. and Edward E., daughters Eva M., and Catherine P., all of whom are living except Henry. Brother Baker was converted, at Bethel Camp Ground, in Carroll County, Ga., under the ministry of the Rev. Jas. L. Fowler, who was preaching, on the subject "God's Pruning Knife" when God sent a genuine case of old time conviction, to Brother Baker's heart. He never did forget the time and place of his conviction and conversion, and the subject; "God's Pruning Knife", was ever fresh in his mind, and he often referred to this, in his ministry. His early educational advantages were limited, but he had an unusual measure of natural ability, and a real good case of heart-felt religion. Immediately after his conversion, he entered Mt. Zion Seminary, at Mt. Zion, Ga. Ministers being scarce, in those days, in the Georgia Conference he was called on to take a charge, early after entering the Seminary, and did not get to finish his school work. He was admitted on trial, in the Georgia Conference in 1902, full connection in 1904. Was ordained Deacon, by Bishop Foss, in 1902. Elder by Bishop Cranston, 1906. He served the following charges, in the Georgia Conference; Dunnigan and Simpson 1901-1905, Rock Springs 1906-1907, Union Hill 1908, Ellijay 1909-1910. He transferred to the Holston Conference in the fall of 1910 and served the following charges; Daisy 1911, Pikeville 1912-1913, Dayton 1914-1916, Englewood 1917-1918, retiring in October 1918, because of ill health. Brother Baker has answered the roll call, in the Great Conference above, but will live on, in the memory of hundreds of friends, both in Georgia and the Holston Conference. His funeral was conducted by Dr. R. H. Robb, assisted by the Rev. Collan and the Rev. Roy Etherage.

L. D. HAMIL.

REV. MARION H. MONROE

Rev. Marion H. Monroe was born June the 29, 1855 in Georgia and died, at his home, near Andersonville, Tenn., June the 19, 1926. Lacking only ten days of reaching his "Three score years and ten," and one more. He was converted at the age of 12 years, and began preaching when only 14 years old. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1867 and was licensed to preach in 1875.

Brother Monroe was a good student and a fine and eminent scholar. He entered the then Grant University, at Athens, Tenn., in 1882 where he graduated with honor. He was very able in debates; and often took great delight in discussing Church and Bible doctrines. It was often said of him. "He is a strong and logical preacher—a great Theologian." In 1886 he was admitted on trail into the Holston Conference, full membership, 1888, Ordained Deacon by Bishop Mallalieu in 1885; and Elder by Bishop Ninde, in 1888.

He accepted the following appointments. Crossville Circuit, 1886; Spring City, 1887-88; Dayton, 1888; 1889 in school, Warren College, 1890; Parrottsville, 1891-94; Kingston, 1895; Chatata, 1896-97; Jellico and Newcomb, 1898; Morristown Circuit, 1899, Powells Valley Seminary, 1900; Sy., 1901; Madisonville, 1901-05; Spivey Memorial, 1906; Morgan Springs, 1907; A. B. Wright Institute, 1907-10; Wise 1910-13; South Pittsburgh, 1914; Pikeville, 1915-16; Big Valley, 1917-18; Granted a year's rest 1919; retired, 1920.

In July 1879 he married Miss Sarah Louisa Self, who died two years later of fever. To this union, one child, Louis was born, and died in six weeks. In 1884, he married Miss Mary Annie Kyker. To this union five children were born. One died over seas, in the World war. The others, with the mother are still living. The youngest is 29 years old. He is dead, but his works will live on.

M. C. BRUNER.

J. J. ROBINETTE

The Rev. James Jefferson Robinette, D. D., went home to heaven taking his sheaves with him, December 7. His departure was from his residence, Knoxville, Tenn., after a brief illness. He was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference, New Market, Tenn., October, 1878. He was ordained deacon by Bishop E. O. Haven, October 14, 1880, and elder by Bishop Matthew Simpson, October 22, 1882. His pastorates covered the following charges: Holston: Battle Creek circuit, 1878-1879; Pikeville circuit, 1879-80; Kingston and Rockwood, 1880-81; supernumerary (to attend school) 1881-82; Greeneville, 1882-84; Morristown, 1884-86; Chattanooga District, 1886-89; Knoxville, Asylum St., 1889-90; Knoxville District, 1890-92; Cleveland, 1892-94; Johnson City, 1894-95; Athens District, 1895-97; Maryville, 1897-1902; Athens, 1902-06; Johnson City, 1906-09; Jellico, 1919-10. Indiana Conference: Liberty, 1910-11; Evansville, Simpson Church, 1911-13; Rockport, 1913-15. Holston Conference: Bristol, 1915-16; Harriman, 1916-1918; Chattanooga, St. Marks, 1918-20; Greeneville, 1920-21; Sevierville, 1922; retired, 1923; supply, Harri-man, 1924. He was a member of the General Conference of 1904 and of 1908.

He possessed splendid pulpit ability. His preaching was fearless, yet tender; searching, yet inspiring; deep, yet plain and practical. He made definite appeal to daily life, and insisted that religion means actual transformation, and an experience which signifies a new creation. His messages produced superb self-mastery, the enrichment of character, and the realization of lofty ideals. He felt the spell of the mysterious atmosphere in which he lived and moved and had his being. When he opened the Bible to proclaim its truth he found it filled with visions, gleams of prophecy, comfort, hope, faith, love, and courage. With all this wealth of material, this outpouring of God's mind, this flooding of earth with the wonders of heaven, he thought it obligatory that the sermon be redeemed from a tame, commonplace thing. By the help of Christ he redeemed it. With the reverent eye of a seer, the chastened spirit of a prophet, and the courage of a Daniel, he exalted Christ, warned sinners, and comforted saints.

We stood by his side more than a score of years ago and conducted the funeral of his two dear little boys. His faith is best expressed in his own words: "To Mrs. Robinette and to myself the future life is so certain, the goodness of God so sure, that we confidently expect to have our dear children with us in endless and inexpressable happiness." In this sublime trust he went on preaching, praying, anticipating, and since the afternoon of December 7, realizing what it means to meet his loved ones in heaven. He stood, as it were, in both worlds—the seen and the unseen, the one as real to him as the other. For such a man death is reduced to a mere formality.

He is survived by his faithful, invalid wife and devoted daughter, Miss Faith. Mrs. Robinette, having been unable to attend funeral services at the church, the editor of the Southeastern endeavored to speak some words of comfort and appreciation and to offer prayer at the home, after which the body was conveyed to the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Knoxville, where the services were in charge of his pastor, the Rev. R. M. Millard. The choir sang, "Faith of Our Fathers," the Rev. H. M. Hawk led in prayer. Pastor Millard read the Scripture and made fitting comment upon their application to the life of the deceased; the Rev. W. F. Pitts spoke of his friend as a princely soul; the writer dwelt upon his power as a preacher; the Rev. G. T. Francisco offered prayer; and the Rev. M. C. Bruner pronounced the benediction.

His brethern in the ministry—the Rev. J. A. Mitchell, the Rev. G. T. Byrd, the Rev. G. J. Creswell, the Rev. W. D. Wilkerson, and the Rev. Jesse Bogue were the pallbearers.

We tenderly laid his tired body to rest in beautiful Woodlawn Cemetery. Dr. Millard read the committal, Dr. Byrd prayed, and Dr. Mitchell pronounced the benediction.

J. M. MELEAR.

GEORGE COOKMAN WILLIAMS

George Cookman Williams was born on a farm near Federalsburg, Maryland, September 21, 1874, and died in Knoxville, Tennessee, November 12, 1925. For more than a year he had been a patient, silent sufferer, but suddenly the break came at the close of an intensive Sabbath. A speedy removal to the hospital and a hurried operation availed little and after a few days of suffering the end came.

Brother Williams came of sturdy Methodist stock. At the early age of twelve he professed conversion under the ministry of Rev. G. L. Hardesty, of the Wilmington Conference. Within the bounds of the Wilmington Conference he spent most of his ministry. There he was born, educated, married, and became a leading minister of the conference, filling many of its prominent appointments and building several churches and parsonages.

When the call to preach came to him, he sought his educational equipment in the Wesley Collegiate Institute at Dover, Delaware. His student years here developed for him almost severe studious habits which served him in good stead in after years, making him a reader of all the good and great books and keeping him abreast of the times. Those who sat under his ministry soon discovered that he had communed with the master minds in the great books.

In April, 1902, Brother Williams was married to Miss Louise R. Satterfield, of Dover, Delaware. Three children blessed this marriage, namely Dorothy, Edward and Louise. All of them with their mother survive their father.

In October, 1922, Brother Williams was transferred from the Wilmington Conference to the Holston Conference and was stationed at Knoxville, Tennessee. He soon made a place for himself in the city and church life. The church found he was a shepherd worthy and well qualified to lead. His superior pulpit ability was soon recognized. His manifest interest in both church and city life soon endeared him to the people, and the general public, which held him in high esteem.

This man of God was blessed with large sympathy and unselfish interest for others in a marked degree. No distance was too great and no sacrifice too large, if a chance was furnished to minister to some one in need. His devotion to his parish was only exceeded by his devotion to his family—always solicitous, dreaming of noble things for the tomorrows of those he loved.

This servant of the church had the rarest faculty to reach men. He knew men. They loved him and trusted his leadership. This was shown especially where the Masonic Order gave him notable honors, when in 1914 he was made Grand Chaplain and in 1921 Grand Master of the state, and two years later he was elected Grand Representative.

Those who knew the spirit of this man were not surprised when the World War was on that he offered himself to the Government, went to the training camp to qualify, and was ready to sail for France in the chaplaincy service when the war closed.

The funeral services were conducted in his own church at Knoxville in charge of Rev. W. C. Martin, the district superintendent. The body lay in state within the altar of his own church for three hours and hundreds of sorrowing parishioners and friends from all walks of life viewed the remains.

After the service in Knoxville the body was taken back to his native heath and another service was held in Dover, Delaware, in charge of Rev. G. T. Alderson, his bosom friend for a quarter of a century. This service was attended by scores of ministers and a multitude of sorrowing friends, assembled from the various charges where Brother Williams had faithfully served for more than twenty years. His body was laid to rest in Silver Lake cemetery near the town.

All too soon his work is finished—so it seems to us, but thus it was. Wherever he wrought, he wrought well. A strong preacher, a faithful pastor, loved of men, trusted by friends, blest of God and adored by his family circle—an achievement worthy of the noblest and best.

“Servant of God, well done.”

MRS. D. L. HOWELL

Mrs. D. L. Howell, who had been in poor health for a number of months, died in the hospital at Johnson City last Wednesday night at 9:15. She was taken from her home here to Johnson City a few days previous to her death but continued to grow worse until she passed away.

She was the wife of Rev. D. L. Howell, who for a number of years has been pastor of the Mountain City circuit, M. E. church. She was an excellent Christian lady, a good neighbor, true wife and devoted mother. Husband and children did everything within their power to comfort their loved one and assist in restoring her to good health, but despite their efforts she peacefully passed away. The husband and children were all present when the end came. The surviving children are Prof. Sam R. Howell, now residing in Washington City studying law. The other sons are Vasco, Dwight L. and C. G. Howell, who are at home and three daughters: Miss Bernice, a member of the High School faculty; Miss Mary, a teacher in the school at Trade, and Miss Flora Howell.

The remains reached here from Johnson City, Thursday evening and the funeral was held in the M. E. church Friday morning at eleven o'clock. It was conducted by Rev. D. C. Slagle, local pastor, and District superintendent Oliver, of Johnson City, who preached an excellent sermon to a large crowd, many persons not being able to gain admittance. The floral offering was large and very beautiful. Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

MRS. C. N. SADDLER

Mrs. Adaline Tennessee Smith Saddler, was born in Warren County, Tennessee, April 4, 1861 and died, at her home, at Sunny-Side, St. Elmo, Tennessee September 22, 1926, age 65 years, five months and eighteen days. She was converted at the age of sixteen, and joined the Methodist Episcopal church, and lived a faithful member until her death. She was married to C. N. Saddler, March 17, 1878. To this union five children, three sons and two daughters, were born. Two of the children a son and daughter, preceded her to the better land. The daughter slipped away, in infancy, the son lived to become a minister, and to render several years service, in pastorate. He, preceded his mother, just four years to a day. Surviving her are; the husband, The Rev C. N. Saddler, St. Elmo, Tenn., the two sons, W. H., of Jackson, Tenn., John S., of St. Elmo, Tenn., and the daughter, Mrs. J. N. Rutherford, St. Elmo, Tenn. One brother H. T. Smith, of Macon County, Tenn. She also leaves seventeen grand children and three great grand children and a host of friends in two conferences, for her husband served for a number of years, in the Central Tennessee Conference and then transferred to the Holston. The funeral service was conducted, in St. Marks M. E. Church, in Chattanooga, by the Rev. L. D. Hamil, pastor, assisted by the Rev J. E. Wolfe, pastor of the M. E. Church South, in St. Elmo, Tenn. Her body was laid to rest, in the beautiful Chattanooga Memorial Park Cemetery.

DR. EDWIN C. FERGUSON

Dr. Edwin C. Ferguson was born in Huntington, Vermont October 6, 1846, and died in Jacksonville, Ill, March 28, 1926. He was buried in Quincey, Illinois. He gave a correct answer to the question of questions, How to live. His life was indeed a benediction to the community where he lived. His influence and goodness still live in the lives of the hundreds of young men and young women who were so fortunate as to have him for their instructor in the College where he taught for so many years. Truly it can be said: 'He taught, prayed and praised under the influence of the Holy Spirit.' His religion was to him everything, and he did not permit anything to prevent him from attending the House of God as long as he was able. He was at home in the prayer meeting, the Sunday school and all the regular services of the sanctuary. He was true to every interest of the kingdom, and never faltered in his friendship to his pastor, friends and neighbors. Every one who knew him believed in his genuine piety, his faith in Christianity and his devotion to truth. His character was untarnished and stood out as a challenge to those who doubted the sufficiency of the Grace of God to keep the one who trusted in him.

Holston Conference, 1926

He was admitted on trial in the New England Conference, 1874; full membership, 1876; ordained Deacon by Bishop Foster, 1876, Elder by Bishop Peck, 1878.

New England Conference pastoral service, 1874-83. Illinois Conference: Professor in Shaddock College, Quincy Ill., 1883-86. Southern Illinois Conference: Professor in McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill., 1886-91. Holston Conference: Professor in Chattanooga University, 1891-92, and at Athens, 1892-1924, when he retired.

It has truthfully been said that he never sought for either place or power for himself, but followed the leading of the Holy Spirit and thus found his place in God's great plan for him. He was a devoted husband, a faithful minister and a successful teacher, and if earthly preparation will fit a soul for heaven, by the Grace of God, Dr. Ferguson is at home forever.

GIBBS McNUTT OGLE

Gibbs McNutt Ogle, wife of the Reverend E. H. Ogle, was born September 26, 1895, at Kimberlin Heights, Tennessee, and died December 28, 1925. The deceased is survived by her husband, the Reverend E. H. Ogle, and one son Olin Ogle aged ten years, of Townsend, Tennessee; her father, James McNutt of Niota, Tennessee; one brother, George W. McNutt of Coalgood, Kentucky; two sisters, Mrs. R. M. Kennedy of Shooks, Tennessee, and Miss Hattie McNutt of Winterhaven, Florida.

Mrs. Ogle professed faith in Christ in early life, and united with the Chillhowee Baptist Church in Sevier County, Tennessee, in which fellowship she continued until September 1919, when she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the time of her death she was a member of the Margaret Townsend Memorial Methodist Church, Townsend, Tennessee, of which church her husband is the pastor.

During her illness over a period of a number of years she bore her sickness with much patience, with but little complaint, and with great faith in the goodness of God. Mrs. Ogle was a faithful wife, a devoted mother, and a devout Christian.

OUR SAINTED DEAD

*Elders elected to preside in absence of bishop.

In 1844 the great division occurred, and in 1845 the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was organized. Continuous activity in Holston Conference Methodist Episcopal Church was abandoned until the close of the Civil War. In 1865 the Holston Conference was re-organized at Athens Tennessee, under the Presidency of Bishop David W. Clark.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EXAMINERS

AND CANDIDATES

1. The work of the Board is divided into six groups: Admission on trial; first, second, third, and fourth years; and Local Orders. Each group to be in the hands of a committee—one of the committeemen to be chairman of the committee.

2. Mid-year examinations are required; time and place to be arranged and announced.

3. The day preceding the opening of the Annual Conference is the time appointed for examination.

4. The candidates are urged to buy their books at the very opening of the year, and study carefully the mid-year subjects, and after the mid-year examinations make complete survey of the remaining subjects immediately. The examiners are required to correspond with the candidates in the early winter, preparatory to mid-year examinations.

5. The requirements of the Discipline are to make the examinations written if practicable, and two weeks ahead of the Annual Conference to send written questions to the Chairman of the Board.

6. The chairman of each group is to submit in writing the grades of the candidates in his department to the registrar.

7. The provision for the mid-year examinations shall not deprive any candidate for admission on trial of the opportunity of being examined at the time appointed for the examination at the Annual Conference.

8. The Board of Examiners, together with the candidates, are called to meet at the place of the next Annual Conference session the night previous to the day of Conference examinations.

CONFERENCE RULES

1. No person shall absent himself from the sessions of the conference without leave unless he be sick or otherwise unable to attend.

2. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the conference proceedings, which he shall cause to be published in the Annual Journal of the conference, and it shall be the official journal. He shall edit the minutes and all matter for publication, and shall make contracts for the printing of the journal as in his judgment may seem best. He shall have charge of the journal and conference files, and forward them to the place of meeting of the annual conference each year.

3. All committees whose reports are to be printed in the journal shall present their reports to the secretary in writing, otherwise the committee on publication is not required to insert such reports in the journal.

4. All candidates for admission on trial, for admission into full membership, for admission on credentials from other churches, for re-admission, and for recognition of orders, shall be required to appear before the Committee on Conference Relations and the Board of Examiners, and to furnish such information as may be required touching their general character and their qualifications for the ministry.

5. All cases involving a change in conference relations or withdrawal shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

6. Widows of deceased ministers who have ever traveled with their husbands may be temporary claimants, and may be referred to the board of Stewards, who shall decide each case from year to year.

7. The chairman of the board of stewards shall be ex-officio one of the assistant secretaries of the conference for secretarial work in connection with conference claimants, and shall be the last number of the Committee on Memoirs.

8. The memorial service for deceased members, and for the wives of deceased members shall be the special order the first day of conference at the close of the communion service.

9. Conference visitors shall be allowed 10 minutes in which to address the conference. District Superintendents' reports shall be limited to 15 minutes, and reports of committees, except the board of stewards, to five minutes.

10. All applications for special collections to be apportioned to the charges in the conference shall be referred to the Committee on Special Collections.

11. There shall be elected each year a Nominating Committee, consisting of three members, which committee shall nominate the

Holston Conference, 1926

Standing Committee and the Committee on Nominations for the ensuing session. No member of the Nominating Committee shall be eligible for consecutive re-election to the committee.
